DETAILED ACTION

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

The cross-reference to the related application should not appear in the "Detailed Description".

Cross-References to Related Applications: See 37 CFR 1.78 and MPEP § 201.11.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Objections

Claims 1-4 are objected to because of the following informalities:

In claim 1, line 15, the recitation "9abut" should be changed to "abut". Claim 3, line 5 has a similar recitation. Claims 2 and 4 depend from claim 1 and are likewise objected to.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bloch, U.S. 4,102,052.

Regarding claim 1, Bloch discloses 1 a first (16 at 30) and second (16 at 28) relative rotatable coupling parts, elastomeric elements (14a,14b), a coupling gap (between 20 at 28 and

Art Unit: 3672

20 at 30) between said first and second coupling parts; a marking (24), an indicator plate (20), the marking (24) and indicator plate (20) being centered, abutting at the gap and serving for a determination of a relative angle of torque of the first and second coupling parts (col. (col. 3, lines 54-67).

As to claim 4, Bloch discloses the coupling is combined with a stationarily disposed strobe light (col. 4, lines 31-47), an intermittent beam of which is directed onto the marking and indicator plate, and wherein a flash frequency of said strobe light is synchronized with a rotational speed of the coupling (col. 5, lines 3-20).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2 and 3 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

The prior art of record does not disclose or suggest all the claimed subject matter including the scale indicating an actual range that results from the angle of torque as an indication for the wear of the elastomeric elements.

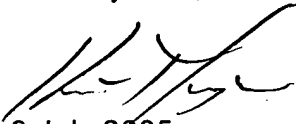

The prior art of record does not disclose or suggest all the claimed subject matter including the coupling guard is provided with openings in an area that is swept over by the marking and said indicator plate during a rotation of the coupling.
